

Annie Finney has reason to boast about her daughter, Carol. Carol has been judged regional winner of a speed typing contest. For this honor Carol and her mother will sojourn to the National Typing Championship in Washington, D. C. May 12th to 14th.

Carol will graduate later this month from Florence High School.

Lucile Barber, of the Customer Service Department, is very proud of her daughter, Claudia. Claudia is first in her graduating class of 173 at Canon City High School. For her outstanding academic achievements she has been awarded the coveted Gates Foundation Scholarship. Only 22 were presented this year, out of 1200 applications. The four year scholarship is to any college or university of her choice.

A few other achievements of Claudia's are: Miss Rainbow of Colorado, 1965-66 and Vice President of the Canon City chapter of the National Honor Society.

Claudia plans to continue her education at the University of Denver.

Juanita Seal shows interest in her work by frequently launching some of her rockets. In the picture (front page) Juanita is launching an Astron Sprite. From time to time other employee launchings will be shown in this paper.

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY ...
Our wish to you who are...
and to those of you who may someday be

For your information:

Don Chumbley reminds us that "only two days remain to purchase tickets on a 21" Color Television set to be given away by the Canon City Jay-Cees. Tickets are only $1.00 each and the drawing will be held Sunday, May 8, 4 p. m. at Hickey Field. Profits made from the sale of these tickets will go into a community betterment fund." .....Oh yes, tickets can be purchased from Don and he may just have one or two left.

Have you wondered who was driving what car? The Lion's Club has solved this problem by offering, for only $3.00, the complete Fremont County license plate book. It tells the number, make of car and owner. To get your book, see Vern or myself.

If you want to place some news in the Launch Pad please contact me on or before the Friday before the paycheck. I would also like to have all information in writing. Thank you once more.
