BY THE PUBLIC RELATIONS DEPARTMENT

JULY 29, 1966

July 16 the sky over the plant was filled with some of the wildest boost gliders ever seen. It wasn't really an invasion, just the first intracompany model rocket contest. It was an hour and 15 minutes of great fun and the novices have a right to crow - they beat the pros all hollow.

The first place went to Judy Davidson (above) and Margie Prather took second.

A large crowd of employees and other spectators were present - many wishing they had taken part.

For the one who enjoyed himself the most, take a look at the back page photo.

Paula Clark is praying either for the end of the shift - or strength!

The name badge with this Launch Pad is intended to make it easier for new employees (and a few of us older ones with poor memories) to get acquainted. Lets all help out. OK? ... OK!

Happy Birthday to Ellen Persinger and Terry McDonald. Ellen-July 27 and Terry-July 29.

Congratulations to Margaret Babcock and her husband, Arthur, on their silver wedding anniversary, July 28.

Helen Cole came as close to death the 20th as she wants. Lightning struck her! Knocked her out (and to the floor) and creamed a table lamp. All this occurred through a picture window! Helen has a burned right forefinger, bent ring and singed right forearm as momentos - Life suddenly looks much sweeter.

We have one newcomer - her name is Alice White, she is married, lives in Penrose and has 3 children; Debra, Peggy and Steven. Her home away from home is the woodshop on the graveyard shift.

Good News! The dependent insurance did go through. It was effective July 9 and a certificate will soon be arriving for each employee.
